

The Eagle Creek Fire – A Watershed Perspective

Diane Hopster, Hydrologist, USFS

541-308-1732, dhopster@fs.fed.us

Abstract: The Eagle Creek Fire burned multiple watersheds across the western end of the Columbia Gorge in an area with high historical, cultural, recreational and natural resource values. This presentation will focus on an overview of effects of the fire from a watershed perspective, as well as anticipated effects based on the Burned Area Emergency Response (BAER) efforts.