

Klickitat & White Salmon Rivers Fisheries and Watershed Science Conference

Hosted by Yakama Nation, Bonneville Power Administration and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
February 27th, 2008 9:00AM - 5:00PM
The Discovery Center, The Dalles, OR.

Regional Watershed Overview:

Opening Comments	Bill Sharp	Yakama Nation Fisheries
A Ten Minute History of 15 Years of Columbia River ESA Litigation	Rob Lothrop	Columbia River Intertribal Fish Commission
Condit Decommissioning Project Salmon Habitat Recovery and Watershed Planning Processes in the White Salmon and Klickitat Basins	Todd Olson David McClure	PacifiCorp Energy Klickitat County Natural Resources Department

Fisheries Science:

Information from the Cle Elum Supplementation & Research Facility Hatchery Scientific Review Group	Dave Fast	Yakama Nation Fisheries
The All-H-Analyzer Model: An Overview and Application in Anadromous Fisheries Management	Chris Frederiksen	Yakama Nation Fisheries
Monitoring and Evaluation of Anadromous Salmonids in the Klickitat Subbasin	Joe Zendt	Yakama Nation Fisheries
Influence of landscape on resident and anadromous life history types of Oncorhynchus mykiss (full report will be linked soon)	Shawn Narum	Columbia River Intertribal Fish Commission

Fisheries Projects:

White Salmon River Basin Lamprey Survey	Christina Luzier	U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service
Juvenile Salmon Production and Stock Composition in the Lower White Salmon River Prior to Removal of Condit Dam	Rod Engle	U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service

Fish assemblage, abundance, growth, and habitat in Rattlesnake Creek prior to the reintroduction of anadromous fish above Condit Dam	Pat Connolly	U.S. Geological Survey, Western Fisheries Research Center
Documenting Steelhead ( Oncorhynchus mykiss ) life histories in Rattlesnake Creek and White Salmon River prior to the reintroduction of anadromous fish above Condit Dam	Brady Allen	U.S. Geological Survey, Western Fisheries Research Center
Klickitat Fishway Passage Improvement. One Down, One to Go	Bill Sharp	Yakama Nation Fisheries
Iteroparity in Columbia River Summer-Run Steelhead ( Oncorhynchus mykiss ): Summary of 2001-2004 Kelt Studies	Robert Wertheimer	U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Watershed Projects:

An Overview of the Klickitat Watershed Enhancement Project	Will Conley	Yakama Nation Fisheries
Presentation on Mid-Columbia Fisheries Enhancement Group and work in the White Salmon & Klickitat Basins	Margaret Neuman	Mid-Columbia Fisheries Enhancement Group
Sticks, Livestakes, and Snails - Underwood Conservation District's Watershed Activities from the Headwaters to the Columbia	Tova Cochrane	Underwood Conservation District
Columbia Land Trust Private, Voluntary Habitat Conservation and Restoration on the Klickitat River	Lindsey Cornelius	Columbia Land Trust

* Education & Outreach - Looping slideshow during breaks (USFWS & YN)