

DEPARTMENT OF ECOLOGY
State of Washington

- Washington Conservation Corps is an AmeriCorps program housed within the Department of Ecology
- 53 crews and 14 Individual Placements throughout WA
- Young adults (18-25) and recently returned military veterans
- Crews consist of 5 AmeriCorps members and 1 crew supervisor

- Paid trainings
- Earn WA State minimum wage + $5,815 AmeriCorps Education Award after 11 months of service
- Educational loan forbearance and interest payments provided by AmeriCorps
- Health insurance offered to 11 month members

What We Do: Restore Habitat

Before

After

What We Do: Environmental Education & Community Service

What We Do: Respond to Disasters

SURVIVOR

CALLE 4 B-11

Disasters that WCC has responded to:

Hurricane Maria – Puerto Rico & US Virgin Islands: 2017- 2018

Hurricane Irma – Florida: 2017-2018

Hurricane Harvey – Texas: 2017

Louisiana Flooding: 2016 – 2017

Hurricane Matthew – Florida: 2016

West Virginia Flooding: 2016

Missouri Flooding: 2016

Typhoon Soudelor – Saipan: 2015

Grays Harbor Flooding: 2015

Detroit Flooding: 2014

Oso Landslide: 2014

Yukon Flooding – Alaska: 2013

Hurricane Sandy – New York & New Jersey: 2012 – 2013

Joplin Tornados – Missouri: 2011

Hurricane Katrina – Louisiana: 2005